"The tennis community has a long history of giving back, and supporting the troops and their families through Tennis Thanks the Troops fundraisers is a great way to show our support."

ABOUT MIKE

Mike Dombrowski is passionate about tennis, traveling, and helping others. He says, "Tennis has been a great love throughout my life, and has taken me to some of the most beautiful places, connecting me with some of the most amazing and generous people I have met in my life."

Mike was a NAIA Academic All-American and Nationally Ranked Tennis Player. He has been a certified USPTA Elite Professional for 32 years. His most recent work experience has been 11 years in the travel industry with Wyndham Worldwide. Mike is grateful to have a life filled with tennis and travel and the opportunity to help others through quality tennis events.
