

“Tribute to the Troops” is a way to show thanks to our men and women in uniform this Veteran’s Day. A partnership between American Airlines, Blue Man Group, Sands Foundation, and ThanksUSA will offer Southern Nevadans the opportunity to show appreciation to America’s heroes who serve our country every day.

On Veteran’s Day, November 11, American Airlines will fly wounded warriors and their spouses from around the country to Las Vegas on a “Yellow Ribbon” aircraft for a weekend of relaxation and educational seminars sponsored by the Sands Foundation and The Venetian Resort Hotel Casino. Then on Thursday, November 12, a special Blue Man Group performance at 7:00 p.m. will honor America’s heroes, with all proceeds from ticket sales supporting ThanksUSA’s efforts to provide scholarships for the spouses and children of military men and women.

ThanksUSA is a non-partisan, charitable effort to “thank” the men and women of the United States armed forces by providing need-based college, technical and vocational school scholarships for their children and spouses. Over the past three years, ThanksUSA has awarded more than $5 million in need-based, post-secondary scholarships to more than 1,850 spouses and children of military members serving on active-duty status. The organization maintains administration and fundraising expenses of approximately 10 percent, so that nearly 90 percent of all funds raised go to ThanksUSA’s military family scholarship programs. Nevada residents have received ThanksUSA educational scholarships in the past and will be considered for scholarships again this year.

Corporations and individuals are invited to become co-sponsors of “Tribute to the Troops” by purchasing blocks of tickets for the Blue Man Group show on Thursday, November 12. An organization or individual may wish to buy blocks of tickets and donate them to a community group or to military members and their families serving at Nellis Air Force Base. Sponsors will be invited to a reception before the Blue Man Group performance.
