"TTTT hits me in my heart! As a former veteran and avid tennis coach, I can think of no better way to give back to others by using the sport I love. The educational scholarships that ThanksUSA provide are a great way to a better life for those that deserve it most."

ABOUT KIM

Kim Davis is a USPTA Elite professional who has been coaching in Colorado Springs for over 20 years. Kim played collegiate tennis at the USAF Academy and then served in the Air Force as a KC-135 pilot, T-3 instructor pilot, and USAFA women's tennis coach. She is currently the Director of Tennis at Colorado Springs Country Club and also the proud girls' high school coach of The Vanguard School where her two daughters attend.

Kim is also a two-time USPTA Professional of the Year and Tri-Peaks Coach of the Year.
