

JUNE 2021

During the 2021 ThanksUSA scholarship application season, we received more than 1,800 applications from military spouses and kids who are working toward post-secondary degrees or certifications. With your help, ThanksUSA can recognize these families for their everyday sacrifices and provide financial support for those who most need it.

Last month during Military Appreciation Month, ThanksUSA celebrated military moms, announced a partnership with the leading pickleball tour organization, and hosted Pathways for Patriots sessions on career development and self-care. See what else ThanksUSA has planned for 2021!

Invest in a military family today

Cameron has traveled to more than 30 countries, including a life-changing trip to rural Uganda where she volunteered at schools and medical clinics.

ThanksUSA Scholar Spotlight

Cameron was awarded a $3,000 scholarship to begin a Biology major at Virginia Commonwealth University. The daughter of a retired Army Staff Sergeant, Cameron's goal is to become a doctor.

"Because the military has given so much to my family, my hope is to have the means to pursue a medical profession so I can contribute to those in need."
